Subject: Gold King question from High Country News

Libby,

Hi, Jonathan Thompson here from High Country News. I've got a quick question regarding the Gold King incident: What, exactly, is the Superfund status of the Upper Animas Watershed right now? Is it a Superfund site? Or not? I thought Superfund was again put on hold recently after locals resisted; but in yesterday's meeting Dave kept talking about the work as if it was being done under Superfund.

Can you untangle this for me?

Thanks,

Jonathan Thompson
